We'll keep this rate brief, and to the point...the cost to enroll for the 2020 Training Series will increase from $205 to $250 at noon this Friday - and our Beginner ride is this Saturday!

There are a few more details below for those of you who are new to Ready2Ride Cycling and the link to enroll is near the bottom of the note, if you want to get the best deal possible, enroll ASAP to beat the increase.

Of course, the biggest reason to enroll is we have another fantastic season planned and if you delay, and miss details coming early in the season, you may miss some great opportunities and details!

Another good reason, as most of you know, is that we ask each rider to help cover one simple volunteer duty to help support the riders and get off the materials to and from the rides. There are many volunteer options so, the sooner you enroll, the more options you have when selecting a volunteer duty. Also, the 2020 season is shaping up to be another classic series of wonderful, well-supported rides, all fairly close to home!

Are you Ready2Ride?

Ready2Ride Cycling is very excited to announce that enrollment is now open for our 2020 training series - this is a BIG DEAL!

Riders pay a one-time enrollment fee for the 10-week series plus a one week, pre-season beginner ride which is on January 28. The 10-week series runs from February 4 to April 22 and finishes up just in time for the Bike MS, Texas
